

Flexible Cystoscopy Aftercare

- Increase your fluid intake over the next 24 to 48 hours eg an extra four glasses of water a day.
- You may pass some blood in the urine for the first 24 hours.
- You may feel some discomfort/mild burning on passing urine, but this will usually get better after a day or two.
- If you are still experiencing discomfort passing urine, increased frequency, a temperature (above 37.5C, fever or chills) or bleeding after three days, then please consult your GP.
- Advice can be obtained from the Endoscopy unit on – 01493 452370
Monday to Friday 08.00 – 18.00
- Contact the A&E department on 01493 452559 outside of these hours.

The following will be arranged for you -

Return to GP
Outpatient appointment with
Repeat Flexible Cystoscopy
Other
Histology Results will be available from	GP
	Next outpatient appointment
	Consultant will write

Information for patients having had Botox treatment only -

- Please contact the Incontinence Nurse Advisor on 01493 453911 if you experience any problems (answerphone available).
- Please continue antibiotics as prescribed for five days. If you feel unwell after this time please contact your GP.