

Freedom of Information Request – 3395

1. Does your Trust currently offer access to FibroScan for liver fibrosis assessment?

Yes

2. If yes, at which hospital sites is FibroScan available?

James Paget University Hospital NHS Foundation Trust

3. How many FibroScan devices does your Trust currently operate?

X1

4. What models of FibroScan devices are in use (e.g., FibroScan 430 Mini+, 530 Compact, etc.)?

Fibroscan 430+

5. What is the current average waiting time (in weeks) from referral to FibroScan appointment (latest available data)?

11 weeks

6. How many patients are currently on the waiting list for FibroScan services?

152

7. Are any community-based or mobile FibroScan services provided outside of the main hospital sites?

Not currently

8. How many Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) staff does the Trust currently have who are trained and able to perform FibroScan assessments?

Fibroscan is only offered x1 afternoon per week with some extra clinics at a weekend to maintain the waiting list. (0.1 FTE).

9. How many FTE staff would ideally be required to meet service demand within reasonable waiting time targets?

Min X1 FTE for full service requirement to meet the allocated expectation of service being available as a GP direct to test referral, as well as other secondary care departments utilising